DETAILED ACTION

Please note that Mr. Anderson is no longer examining this application. Please contact the undersigned concerning any future inquiries. The following is a new restriction requirement. In the previous requirement, the claims were found to be grouped improperly and no examiners from the related/pertinent classes had been consulted. The delay in the Office's response and any inconvenience are regretted.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-23, 32, 33 and 51-53, drawn to the combination of a computer system in a vehicle, classified in class 296, subclass 24.34. (as approved by Dennis Pedder)
- II. Claims 24-31, drawn to a utility station and a base with a movable flexible support mechanism there between, classified in class 248, subclass 346.06. (as approved by Ramon Ramirez)
- III. Claims 34-50, drawn to a flexible support link mechanism, classified in class 59, subclass 78.1. (as approved by David B. Jones)
- IV. Claims 54-66, drawn to a console, classified in class 312, subclass 304.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II, III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, inventions II and III could be used in a laboratory as opposed to in a console/automobile. The utility station could provide medical information, being horizontally moveable via its flexible support back and forth on a table/horizontal surface while the flexible support mechanism alone provides an elongated means on which an object/medical device can be attached and manipulated. The console of invention IV not needing the specific flexible link support mechanism as claimed in inventions II and III therein. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions I and II-IV are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because as shown in application's figures, different flexible support mechanisms can be used in the system. The subcombinations have separate utility such as outside a vehicle and as distinguished from each other above.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

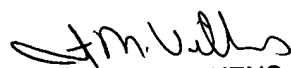

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
